

S.L.Rosser testifies by affidavit in substance as follows:

“On Tuesday morning, April 28th, 1914, while at work on investigating witnesses with reference to the extraordinary motion of Leo M. Frank, I was in search of a negro by the name of Frank Reese. I found said Frank Reese in an alley running from Hunter street between Frazier and Terry Streets, known as Kingley’s Alley. I had information that Frank Reese lived in the first house leading from Hunter Street and as I turned in the alley and started towards this house on the right I looked at the end of a little blacksmith shop or old building of some kind on the left, and there stood George Wrenn, Frank Reese and Dan Goodlin standing close together in conversation. I know George Wrenn, the man convicted of a $30,000 theft of diamonds and who has just finished serving a sentence in the Fulton county jail therefor. He was commonly known among the inmates of the jail as ‘Dr. Wrenn.’

This said George Wrenn or Dr. Wrenn being the brother of Jimmie Wrenn, - said Jimmie Wrenn being the man who has been assisting C.W.Burke, - said C.W.Burke being a witness signing the affidavit of C.Burtis Dalton in Florida and the notary public purporting to attest what purports to be an affidavit from an old negro woman by the name of Mary Rich.”
